Folsom Is Scene Of Shooting

Rejected Suitor Wounds Woman, Commits Suicide

Nine-Year-Old Son Of Mrs. Bessie Brooks Reports Early-Morning Tragedy; Assailant, George Silva, Slays Self

FOLSOM (P)—Mrs. Bessie Brooks, 44, is in a critical condition and George Silva, 52, is dead, apparently by his own hand, as the aftermath of a bedroom shooting early this morning at the Brooks residence, about a mile west of here. Sole witness to the tragedy, in which Silva, a boarder in the Brooks home and apparently a rejected suitor, attempted to slay Mrs. Brooks and then took his own life, was nine-year-old Dale Brooks, Orangevale school boy.

Between sobs he told authorities of the scene which confronted him when

REFERENDUM ON LUMBER UNION

A. F. Of L. Affiliate May Line Up With Lewis Faction

PORTLAND, Ore. (P)—One hundred thousand members of the Northwest Woodworkers Federation, at present affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, today were considering joining the ranks of the Committee for Industrial Organization.

The Federation's executive council voted 48 to 8 to submit the CIO question to a popular referendum. The resolution passed after heavy opposition, 26 delegates refusing to cast ballots.

Delegates refusing to vote included those representing the Puget Sound Council, with a membership of 20,000, all but two members of the Columbia River Council with a membership of 7,000, and the Shingle Weavers' representatives.

Despite the evident opposition to abandonment of A. F. of L. alliance, Federation President Harold Pritchett of Vancouver, B. C., predicted "when our referendum vote is completed 90 per cent of the workers will be for the CIO."

Woodworkers were to return their ballots to Federation headquarters here by midnight, July 10. Voting will be supervised by a board of three members of the executive board of the Federation and two each from the 14 district councils of the sawmill and lumber workers union.

CLUB CHORAL ENDS WORK FOR YEAR

Placerville Shakespeare Club Choral held its final business meeting and picnic for the year on Tuesday, June 8, at the home of Mrs. George Luse. A business meeting followed a pot-luck luncheon.

Mrs. R. A. Healy announced the selection of two vocal trios which will be featured during the coming year.

Gifts were presented to the director, Mrs. M. E. Raber, and the accompanist, Mrs. Horace Wanzler, by the choral members in appreciation of their work and co-operation.

Bridge was a diversion to close the meeting.

Mosquito Nine Downs Bradley Again

Mosquito CCC camp's baseball club took another game from the Camp Bradley CCC nine on Sunday, to the tune of 8 to 5. It was Mosquito's second victory in as many starts against Bradley, and their third victory with no defeats in the CCC district league, which puts them at the top of the column.

Stalin's Mother Died June 4

MOSCOW (P)—Katherine Djuavash, mother of Josef V. Stalin, died in Tiflis on June 4 of pneumonia and heart disease, it was disclosed today. The death was not published in Moscow and was revealed on receipt here of a Tiflis newspaper.

Too Many Pictures Jail Jurywoman

LOS ANGELES (P)—Judge Arthur Guerin asked Mrs. Dorothy Lane what was wrong when she staggered slightly as she entered a jury box for the second day of duty.

"Nothing at all," she replied airily. "I guess I just had too many pictures taken."

She was booked on a charge of drunkenness.

2 ARMY PILOTS MISSING

Flying Between Reno, Salt Lake; Ship Unreported

SALT LAKE CITY (P)—An army observation plane that carried Major Clarence Hodge and Lieutenant Joseph L. McNeil of Boston on an eastward flight, was missing today between here and Reno, Nevada.

The two officers had not been reported since 1050 a. m. (PST) Tuesday, when Major Hodge radioed the Elko, Nevada airport that he was lost and flying blindly. Thunderstorms and light snows swept the vicinity yesterday. Winds as high as 45 miles an hour were reported by weather observers.

Captain D. W. Goodrich, commander of the army airdrome here, ordered three planes—only equipment available—into the air to search for the plane. Goodrich said that for the present no plans had been made to have additional army planes sent here to help with the search. He indicated, however, that if there were not some news of the two officers soon, additional facilities would be requested.

Airline pilots were asked to keep a lookout. The Department of Commerce, Bureau of Aeronautics; army fliers; United Airlines, Western Air Express and the weather bureau co-operated to check all emergency landing fields in the area.

ATTORNEY MAUL OFF TONIGHT TO CAPITAL

City Attorney Thomas Maul leaves tonight from Sacramento for Washington to confer with Senators McAdoo and Johnson and Congressman Harry L. Englebright concerning the city's application for PWA assistance in its sewer project.

Mr. Maul will combine business with pleasure on the trip and will spend some time in Ohio, visiting relatives and friends, expecting to return to Placerville the latter part of the month.

At Dennison College, Ohio, he will be joined by his daughter, Miss Betty Maul, who has spent the past school year there, and who will return to Placerville with him to spend the summer.

A. E. Johnson filed suit Wednesday in Superior Court against Pauline Beaumont, claiming $1,150 due for services supplied at the defendant's special request within the past two years.

Several weeks ago two prominent business men of this city journeyed to San Rafael, one to attend a convention of the Northern California Jewelers and the other to keep him company and to attend to a few business matters in the bay area.

While there, the two men, Leo Burger and M. T. Kelly got to golfing and Leo won high honors. But he did not know that he was to be presented a beautiful cup for his efforts, until it arrived this week.

Mr. Burger is very modestly displaying the beautiful trophy in the rear of his store.

School Trustee Results Told

Sign Directs Travel East

Lake Tahoe Boosted In Billboard Along Yolo Causeway

Co-operating with the Pony Express Route division of U. S. Route 50 in their program to encourage tourist travel over the Lincoln highway between Sacramento and Salt Lake City through Placerville, the El Dorado County Chamber of Commerce has under construction the first of two large signboards to be set up in the Sacramento Valley.

The first board is being set up by Foster & Kleiser along the Yolo Causeway, west of Sacramento, directing the attention of eastbound travelers to the scenic and historic features of the Pony Express Route.

The board is 42 feet long by 12 and one-half feet high and will be completed Saturday.

The second board is to be set up on the Golden State highway between Modesto and Ripon. Erection of the sign was arranged under the chairmanship of Lloyd V. Cannon and John A. Raffetto, Jr., as a special committee for the chamber of commerce. Mr. Raffetto and Mr. Cannon solicited Placerville business men for funds and report that the amount obtained was more than enough to take care of the expense for the first sign, but that additional funds will be needed to make the second sign possible.

Mrs. Smith took the theme "God Is Our Strength, Love and Refuge." She read the 29th Psalm.

Truck loaded after truck load of flowers rolled up to the chapel even after the rites were underway.

ARRESTS DUE IN TAYLOR CASE

15-Year Old Murder Mystery Yields New Evidence

LOS ANGELES (P)—Capt. Bert Wallis of the police homicide squad said authorities are preparing to make several arrests today or tomorrow in the 15-year-old mystery slaying of William Desmond Taylor, movie director and sweetheart of Mary Miles Minter.

One person, under suspicion, has never been mentioned in the case before, he said.

Capt. Wallis said new evidence has been discovered which virtually solves the case, in the opinion of police.

Part of this evidence he described as an unfired bullet, identical with the slug that killed Taylor.

Threats made against Taylor's life have been described by a woman who has never before been questioned, Wallis said. She was quoted as saying the man who made the threats went to the director's home with a gun a number of weeks before the slaying.

Additionally, he said, a man who previously had been named as "alibi" witness, now says he cannot take this role.

Service Taxed To Pay Dole

Colorado Doctors, Lawyers Collect 2 Per Cent Impost

By WILLIAM F. DANENBARGER
United Press Staff Correspondent
DENVER (P)—Colorado doctors, lawyers and beauty operators, now collecting for the state's 2 per cent tax on their services, will submit their first returns to the treasury on June 15.

Approximately $125,000 will be turned over to the treasury for the first half-month's collections under Colorado's new 2 per cent service tax, a companion measure to the 2 per cent sales tax that has been in effect two years.

The service tax law enacted when the $45-a-month old age pension amendment earmarked 85 per cent of sales and liquor tax receipts for pensions, became effective May 14 upon the signature of Governor Teller Ammons.

Funds Kept Separate

Despite similarity in the two laws, revenues from the taxes will be used for separate purposes. Eighty-five per cent of the sales tax receipts must go for old age pensions. All of the service tax money will go into the general fund.

PARADE OF SPORTS

By HENRY McLEMORE
 (United Press Staff Writer)

BIRMINGHAM, Mich. (UP)—I can think of no more beautifully constructed snare for the sucker than the handbooks which are operated on the National Open championship.

As a "get-poor-quick" scheme they are every bit as efficient as the Kentucky Derby winter book, which has trimmed more suckers than a Times Square barber.

Two of them are running full blast here today on the eve of the 51st National Open, the proprietors being Jack Doyle of Broadway, and Colonel Tom Watterson of everywhere between the Straits of Magellan and Ty Ty, Georgia. Mr. Doyle, who also operates a pool atelier hard by 42nd Street, is famed as the "man in the green coat." He never has been seen without this coat which, so the legend goes, was tailored from the top of an old billiard table. The coat is nigh on to 40 years of age, but the only wear it shows is about the pockets. Undoubtedly from the passage of my dollars and your dollars into there-in.

Colonel Watterson is the fastidious gent used as the subject of an essay from Pittsburgh during the P. G. A. An amazingly fine chef he carries a chafing dish with him wherever he goes, and breaks down his clients' objections to his odds with rare viands. One taste of his truffled dishes and the customer is perfectly willing to accept his odds, which are tighter than a drum's vest.

Colonel Watterson will need his finest sauces, and Mr. Doyle his smoothest line of glib to keep their customers smiling out here in Birmingham, because they have quoted some of the most ridiculous prices since one of their predecessors offered no better than even money against Joshua's stopping the sun.

With 170 of the world's finest golfers in the field, here are some of the prices offered today by the Philanthropic commissioners:

Harry Cooper, Sammy Snead, Byron Nelson, Ralph Guldahl, and Henry Picard, 10 to 1 to win, 4 to 1 to place, 2 to 1 to show, and even money to come in fourth.

In the second bracket Sarazen, Revolt, McSpaden, Runyan, Laffoon, Ghezzi, Dudley, Hines, Thomson, Watrous, Shute, Little, Manero, Horton

Hank.

11 to 12 Midnight
 KFBK — News; 11:15, Al Eldridge; 11:45, Dance Band.

KSFO—Merle Carlson; 11:15, Harry Owens; 11:30, Cole McElroy.

KPO—George Olsen; 11:30, Archie Loveland.

KGO—Paul Carson.

Smith, and Dutra are quoted at 15 to 1, 6 to 1, 3 to 1, and 3 to 2 for fourth.

Consider that first group. Not a man in it has ever won a National title, and Cooper is the only one who has ever finished as high as second in such a championship. Yet the best you can get is 10 to 1. If race track bookies offered the same sort of odds the customers would knock them off their stools and set fire to their equipment.

The odds on the second group are just as ridiculous. Sarazen hasn't won a decent tournament since he uncorked his once-in-a-lifetime double eagle at Augusta two years ago. Revolta didn't last a round in the recent P. G. A. McSpaden has a swing which makes him a frightful risk in medal play. Ghezzi, Dudley, Hines, Thomson, and Horton Smith never have won a National crown. Dutra has practically given up tournament golf. Every one of these men are 30 to 1 or better shots.

Yet Doyle and Watterson are doing a rushing business. And among their most eager bettors are the players themselves—the men who, above all, should know the vagaries of golf and the absurdity of trying to place a finger on the winner.

SHELLED—New tension gripped Europe over war possibility, after German warships bombarded the Mediterranean seaport of Algiers in reprisal for the Loyist air attack on the Nazi pocket battleship Deutschland. This historic fortress, La Alcazar, standing on the heights overlooking the city, was one of the targets of the German gunners. Twenty were reported killed, 100 wounded.

31 Convicted, Others Await Trial In Detroit Clean-Up

By JOSEPH P. WRIGHT
United Press Staff Correspondent

DETROIT (U)—One year ago the bullet-pierced body of a WPA worker was found in a soggy ditch and through that murder the terroristic Black Legion was revealed.

Today the backbone of the cult that plotted destruction of Jews, Catholics and Negroes has been broken, according to Duncan C. McCrea, Wayne County prosecutor, and the mad dreams of its leaders imprisoned with them.

The spark that was touched off by the finding of the body of Charles A. Poole, slain WPA worker, on lonely Gully road one spring morning in 1936, led to secret investigations that thrust the Black Legion into headlines throughout the country and revealed the skeleton structure of an organization that presumably intended to overthrow the federal government on September 16, 1938.

Prompt investigation of all channels of the terrorist group's power and influence brought equally prompt prosecution. Now all that remains of the once potent legion is a handful of calendar court cases and a record conviction of 31 key leaders, authorities believe.

The terroristic order, revived and organized by a clinging fringe of an earlier decade's Ku Klux Klan, was set up along the lines of its predecessor, according to Jack Harvill and Charles Meehan, police detectives, who conducted the first investigations into the cult. Its leaders preached the doctrine of religious and racial bigotry. They inflamed the passions of members by appealing to the base hatred of their natures. They enforced their orders with whip and gun.

Harvill and Meehan provided the first clew to the legion's existence when, in penetrating the mystery surrounding the strange and apparently motiveless murder of Poole, they discovered a collection of curious robes and deadly weapons in the homes of his neighbors. Friends supplied information that Poole was a Catholic, had married a Protestant Southern girl, and by so doing had aroused the animosity of the girl's family and friends.

From this beginning, discovery after discovery was made into the mushroomed organization of the legion. The arrest of Dayton Dean, "triggerman" in the killing of Poole, brought a confession that supplied the vertebral column for most of the subsequent prosecution. Arrested leaders, who had taken a "blood oath" of secrecy, talked readily enough, facilitating the work of McCrea and his assistants, who prepared court cases that imprisoned 31 leaders and drove others into exile.

Confessions disclosed that the Black Legion, in its essence, had been founded during the reconstruction days in the South, had declined to obscurity and inactivity for decade, but was revitalized in Detroit when workers flocked to this city of industry to find themselves competing with immigrant labor.

SUIT OVER BITE

OKEMAH, Okla. (U)—As the result of an alleged wolf bite, W. J. B. Weatherford, of Weleetka, is suing for $5,000 damages. Weatherford, in his petition filed in district court here, alleges the wolf owned by a Weleetka resident bit him recently, was infected with rabies and that treatment was necessary.

L. R. Hart, Chattanooga, Tenn., is to be the new manager of the Sebastopol Apple Growers Union, Sonoma County.

Sonoma County growers are not interested in offers of less than 25 cents a pound for this season's hop crop.

SNOWSLIDE MAY SEAL FATE OF SEVEN

ALPINE, Utah (U)—Tons of boulders, snow and ice may hide forever the bodies of seven persons missing in the Western Air Express plane which crashed on Lake Hardy Peak, last December.

Melting snow started avalanches, which narrowly missed burying 30 workers who had left their posts for the night.

Belief that boulders carried into the area where the plane is thought to have been buried under 25 feet of snow, would sink into the deep snow and possibly cover the wreckage was expressed by officials.

Steps cut into the snow drifts were obliterated by the avalanche. Overhanging banks of snow at the top of the mountain ridge, 1000 feet above the workers, added other hazards to the search.

Don Juan Manuel de Ayala, Spanish explorer, discovered in 1775 the shoals on which Treasure Island, site of the 1939 Golden Gate International Exposition was built.

Service Taxed To Pay Dole

revenue fund to be spent on direct relief.

The distinction makes it imperative for persons and businesses selling both merchandise and services to keep a separate but accurate set of books.

Doctors, for instance, must charge the service tax, but must include a sales tax for any bandages, medicines or other materials they use.

Rent, transportation, wages, advertising and interstate commerce are specifically exempt from the service tax, estimated to yield $3,000,000 a year.

Brokers Pay on 20 Pct.

Brokers, who must pay the tax, have reached an agreement with Homer F. Bedford, state treasurer, whereby they will pay the tax on 20 per cent of their business. The remaining 80 per cent will be classed as interstate business.

Coloradoans, accustomed to paying tax tokens for their food, clothing and other retail purchases, have shown resentment against the impost on picture shows, haircuts, shoe shines, parking lost, repairs, and medical and legal fees.

Hearing to inform the public of the operation of the new tax were turned into "wise cracking and abusive" meetings, Bedford said.

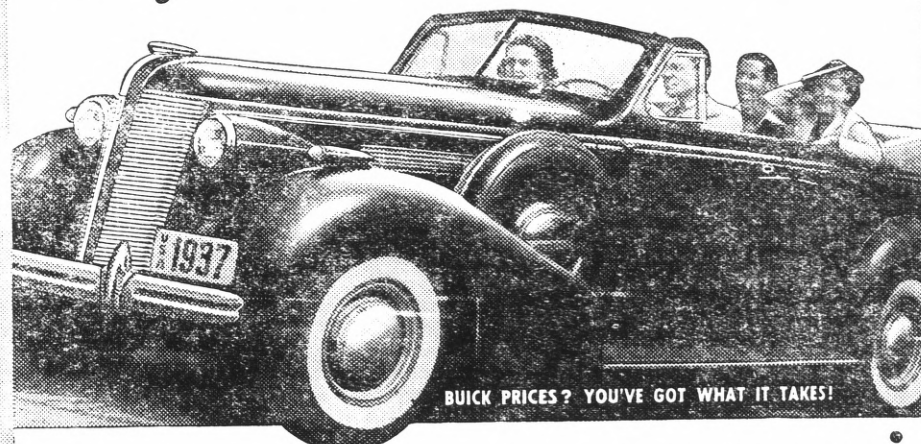

The tax is being administered by the sales tax department under directorship of the state treasurer. The same round, metal tokens are used for both taxes. The 100-man sales tax department is being doubled, with employees chosen from 3,500 persons who applied for the jobs.

Choose a Hat to Match Your New Spring Coiffure

By JACQUELINE HUNT

WHAT about your coiffure? Hats are showing off again this spring. Some of them are crownless, some look like little round, flat cushions or mushrooms slanted over one eye and held in place with ribbon bands. All of them show a lot more hair than usual, so you want your waves and curls smooth and shining.

Choose a new coiffure to suit your hat—or a hat to suit your coiffure, whichever way you please. Both are as varied as personalities, so it's up to you to experiment until you find the right combination.

But do not expect an expert to design a new coiffure for you unless your hair is soft and springy and gleaming with health. Use a good hair tonic to correct any unusual scalp condition and see that your hair gets some sunshine occasionally. Use your hairbrush with renewed vigor. Shampoo every week. For something new, try a delightfully perfumed English toilet soap for your shampoos. It makes a heavy, creamy lather that gives your hair a real spring cleaning. It is easy to rinse away and leaves your hair with a lovely green, while the perfume provides a pleasing, lingering fragrance of min, violet, lilac or rose.

There's news in hairbrushes, too. One is curved to follow the contour of the head and is especially recommended for brushing your waves without stretching them out of shape. The long, flexible Siberian bristles cleanse and polish the hair, and the uneven lengths in each tuft make them more penetrating. The brush fits closely from forehead to crown and the bristles pick up a full layer of hair at each stroke, with light, even tension throughout. Set the brush with its side against the head, bristles pointing toward the part. Roll the brush over until all the bristles touch the scalp, then draw it outward with a long sweeping movement to the end of the hair. Make a part about an inch lower and brush the top layer of hair from the underside outward. Repeat until all of the hair has been brushed in layers, then hold the waved portion down with one hand while you briskly brush the ringlet ends up. Use a blunt-toothed comb to restore your coiffure to its original lines, and brush each ringlet over your finger for added luster and smoothness.

Here are a few points to keep in mind about a new coiffure. If your face is round, be sure to wear your hair off your forehead and insist on having the waves or soft rolls placed on a slant from the temple toward the crown. If your face is narrow and pointed, you will need softer, more feminine curls around your neckline to soften the lines of the neck and jaw. Heavy, square jaws also need softening. The long bob is best for this, especially if there are soft vertical rolls behind the ears.

Short, brushed-up coiffures are nice for the girl with a thick, short neck. Soft, low curls or a little chignon is nice for a long slender neck.

Gem Thieves Steal Bait

"Smart" Police Are Out-Witted As Yeggs Take $35,000 Jewels

CAPETOWN (UP)—South Africa is laughing at the way a gang of illicit diamond buyers turned the tables on the police and stole $35,000 worth of diamonds from them.

The story came out in evidence given before a select committee of public accounts by Colonel de Villiers, police commissioner.

The police, he said, planned to catch a gang of illicit diamond buyers and set a carefully arranged trap. This involved placing a parcel of supposedly stolen diamonds in an agreed hiding place on the veld and then waiting in hiding for the illicit diamond buyers to collect them. Real diamonds owned by police were used as a decoy.

After they had been carefully hidden, the police turned their backs for a few moments while they walked to their places of concealment.

When they looked back the diamonds were gone.

It is believed that one of the gang was watching to see if there was a trap and crawled away with the diamonds when the police turned their backs.

The committee decided to blame no particular person, but said the loss was due to "gross stupidity."
